BCAC would like to encourage our members to tell us about the various organizations, groups or activities in which they contribute their talents. Because of all that you do for the Community and bring those talents to share at BCAC Meetings we become better informed and we get to know our neighbors better. Those organizations or activities may include Friends of the Library, school boards, working for elected officials, Advisory councils, clean-up of neighborhoods &/or creeks. We would like you stand up and take 2 minutes to tell us.
